Building a Culture for Partnering Program

Delivered in partnership by the Australian Council for Educational Research, Tender Bridge and Schools Connect Australia

This two day program is for school staff who are interested in developing their skills to create partnerships for student outcomes that matter. This program is open to all schools.

“Loved the days! Very practical and resourceful. I am motivated to find others who value our issues!”

“Bravo! What an inspiring, challenging, thought-provoking, affirming, well-paced, well-organised and seamlessly facilitated program! Terrific panels. Thanks!”

“Well presented, planned and implemented. Much appreciative of the expertise and enthusiasm evident to support my school’s direction”.

Is this program right for my school?

Do you believe that…

Business, philanthropic foundations and trusts and other individuals and organisations have a role to play in improving outcomes for students? School teachers and leaders need to be equipped in how to partner and how to evaluate success? Partnering for impact can take many forms?

Do you want…

Sound, practical ideas drawn from research and real world cases to put these kinds of visions into practice? Ongoing access to a resource of education-related funds and support? One booklet full of tools, templates and information you need to know all about partnering?

Who is running the program?

- A team from ACER, Tender Bridge and Schools Connect Australia
- Guest ‘partner’ input from cases of successful school-community partnerships
- Representatives from Local Learning and Employment Networks (LLENs) will be attending this program and will be keen to engage with their local schools and support them in partnership strategy, development and implementation now and into the future.

Who are the supporting Local Learning and Employment Networks?

BGK LLEN, FMP LLEN, Gateway LLEN, IE LLEN, OE LLEN and South East LLEN
