Building a culture for partnering

The Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER) Tender Bridge team with the Business Working with Education (BWE) Foundation invites Victorian government school teachers and leaders to sign up for ‘Building a culture for partnering’.

Is this Program right for me?
- Do you believe …
  - that developing partnerships for student outcomes matters?
  - that business, philanthropic foundations and trusts, and other individuals and organisations have a role to play in improving outcomes for students?
  - that school teachers and leaders need to be equipped in how to partner? And how to evaluate success?
  - that partnering for impact can take many forms?
- Do you want sound practical ideas drawn from research and real world cases to put these kinds of visions into practice?
- Do you consider yourself inexperienced in building these kinds of partnerships? If so, then this Program is for you!

What will I be learning about?
- Benefits of partnering
- Overcoming barriers
- Developing partnerships
- Evaluating partnerships
- Available resources

What am I signing up for?
- Two sessions in Melbourne on Tuesday 27th March (9am–3pm) and Tuesday 8th May (9am–1.30pm). Includes morning tea and networking lunch on both days
- The option to access individual support between the sessions
- Access to a 20% discount off ACER bookshop purchases on session days

Who is running the Program?
A team from ACER Tender Bridge and Business Working with Education (BWE).
